U.S. DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASS

March 2, 2006

Dear Attorney Newman,

as per our telephone conversation today;

Since December 27, 2005 I did not have legal representation. I was not aware of this nor was I informed by anyone that there was a date to appear before the honorable court.

I filed a motion with the honorable court on February 27, 2006 to withdraw the default judgment based on these reasons. Also, I filed a motion to dismiss the Plaintiffs' claims.

I wish to express once again my willingness to resolve this matter in a most timely and effective manner without the involvement of the court system.

Please respond to me with regards to this resolution within seven business days as I am quite eager and readily available to resolve this matter in a most prompt and friendly manner.

Please call me if you have any further questions.

Sincerely,
